pating in the popular Memorial Day Race. It was the fifth annual contest, co-sponsored by the Mattapoisett Yacht Club and the Mattapoisett Boatyard.

The winner in the Handicap division was Logan Doane in Yankee Too (on both elapsed and corrected time). Billy Mee's Irish Eyes was the victor for the Corinthians.

Ideal sailing conditions prevailed throughout the afternoon, with sunny skies and brisk southwest winds at 10 miles per hour and increasing later to 20.

The six boats in the Handicap class sailed an 8 1/2 mile course from Ned's Point MYC guide buoy, to Gallatin Rock black can 3, to Angelica Point red nun 2, to Nye's Ledge black bell 9A, to Bow Bells black can 11 and finish.

Logan Doane's Yankee Too led at the start and continued to maintain the lead all of the way. Susan McGowan, skippering Gryphon, fifth in line, moved up quickly on the last leg of the course to place second. It was a close finish indeed for third place with M. Lewis' Fuzz II crossing the line ahead of R. Cook's Tara on elapsed time, only to have Tara declared the winner by five seconds on corrected time.

The five mile course for the nine-boat Corinthian fleet, starting at Ned's Point MYC guide buoy, proceeded to Gallatin Rock black can 3, to Angelica Point red nun 2, to Nye's Ledge black bell 9A, back to Angelica Point red nun 2 and finish.

The first and second place winners for the Corinthians followed essentially the same pattern as did the Handicap contestants. Billy Mee in Irish Eyes (like Logan Doane) was ahead throughout the course. Tom Clark in Instead (like Susan McGowan) came from behind on the last leg to finish second. The third place win-

Parents, who have requested that their college bound students keep out of the demonstrations, led by the radical left, may find a persuasive argument in a reaction which is now showing up on the college scene. You've surely heard the commercial, the theme of which is to give to the college and university of your choice. For years, alumni have donated money to help finance an education for students who come after them. That was before the campus became a battleground. Now, the flow is slowing. Money talks. The silent majority is, quietly, not donating.

Tax supported colleges may soon find funds withheld by legislatures as narrowly averted recently in Massachusetts.

So what? Here's what. If your parents had to go out and mortgage the house to finance your education, it may be insufficient if the tuition takes a large jump. If you work in the summer to help with the cost, that effort may be wiped out if your tuition zooms. Think about it. That SDA leader - is his father loaded? That loudmouth who organizes the building takeover; is he going to school on a government grant? It may not be enough to ignore the demonstrations. The radicals could cost you more than a few weeks of education.

Is your father loaded? Does the govern-

P. S. I agree with the thrust of the editorial and with most of what it says. The statement above just seems to stick out like a sore thumb.

EDITOR'S REPLY

The answer in a single word is

INTEGRITY

Our collective word is at stake in Viet Nam. Our integrity is on trial. No matter that John F. Kennedy is dead and that he, as President, initiated the commitment of the United States. The liberals backed him at that time as vigorously as they now, piously, denounce the results. In retrospect, we all share Senator Edward Kennedy's remarkable hindsight as he denounces the Viet Nam involvement as a bad mistake. Some of us also view the loss of Cuba as a bad mistake. Nevertheless, John F. Kennedy, acting as Commander-in-Chief, committed the United States to both. Should the United States pull out and leave a void that would result in a massacre, it would not only be a criminal disregard for the lives of people who trusted this country but would be a complete loss of integrity. We would have no honor. We would no longer be a power in the world for no country could trust us again. Looking into the future, it might even be an act of suicide for the nation. Communist China is judging us now. Should they decide that they are facing the "paper tiger" that their propaganda terms us, they may well make the fatal judgement that would result in World War III. ese have the hydrogen bomb. They have the means of delivery in production. The vital factor may be a final gauge of the United States' courage and resolution.

A man, who breaks his word betrays all who trust him and himself. A United States, should it ever break its word, will upset the delicate balance of world power with catastrophic results for mankind.

Security is on the same list as peace. We can't achieve one without maintaining the other.

Topping every list is courage.

Art Center Winner

MATT. GIRL WINS ART CENTER CONTEST

The Marion Art Center contest was won by Janet Stratton of Mattapoisett, a student at Old Rochester Regional High School.

All contestants for the $25 prize entered portfolios of excellent calibre, reflecting credit upon the art teachers of the various high schools.

In the judges' opinion, Janet Stratton's work was highly creative, with competent craftsmanship, excellent design and showed fertile imagination.

Honorable mention was given to Brad White of Bourne High School, who, the judges felt, had strong potentials as an illustrator.

Honorable mention was also given to Lawrence Tibbetts of Marion, a student at Tabor Academy, whose work showed remarkable technical strength and discipline.

Among the judges was Mr. Joseph J. Orze, Dean of the College of Fine and Applied Art at SMU. He has exhibited in over 100 competitive shows, has had several one-man shows, has won numerous prizes, and his work is included in various collections, including Munson-Williams Proctor Institute.

Mr. Ernest Halberstadt, artist and teacher, was another judge. His work includes mural and fresco painting, sculpture and photography. He also helps industry solve visual design and marketing problems.

Mrs. Tallman Griffith, the third judge, attended Swain School and majored in art at Mary Washington College. She is an art teacher and interior decorator.

VISITED IN MATTAPOISETT

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Swan and their five children, former residents of Mattapoisett, who are now residing in Saudi, Arabia, visited for several days last week Mr. and Mrs. William Heuberger of Church Street, Mattapoisett. They will be returning to Arabia this week.

ANNIVERSARY TO BE CELEBRATED

The men of the Sacred Heart, sponsors of the devotion to Our Lady the Pilgrim Virgin in our area, plan to celebrate the anniversary of the movements inception on Thursday, June 4th, with a combined Vigil of the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus at Sacred Hearts Church, Main Street, Fairhaven.

Under the direction of Father Alexis Wygers, SS.CC., the vigil will commence with Holy Mass, Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, recitation of the Rosary, singing of hymns and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

All of the families who have hosted Our Lady in their homes, plus any devoted friends of Our Lady are cordially invited to attend.

The vigil will commence at 7:30 P.M. on Thursday, June 4th, and will close at midnight.

CAPEWAY BABE RUTH BASEBALL LEAGUE OPENS SEASON

The opening festivities and Round Robin play of the newly formed Capeway Babe Ruth League was held at the Wareham High School field Sunday afternoon. The weather conditions were ideal with a bright sun shining from a cloud-clear blue sky.

The colors of the teams' uniforms added to the green background of the playing field and made for a most picturesque setting.

"Play Ball" was called by the umpire shortly after Marion Selectman William McLaughlin threw out the first ball to Floyd Empey, league president.

Play began with the Marion Nine facing the Bourne Clippers for 2 innings. This exhibition was followed by the Mattapoisett Mohawks and Bourne displaying their talents. The Mattapoisett Wanderers and the Wareham Reds then squared off for their 2 inning stint. The final contest matched the Wareham Reds and the Wareham Blues.

No attempt was made to keep score, although all contests were very close. This was meant strictly as a preview of the teams in their natty and colorful uniforms, and for the managers and coaches to meet each other before their season openers.

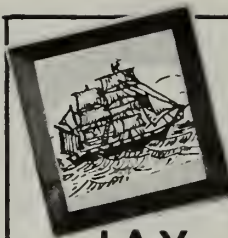

The season started Monday, June 1st and will run to July 26th, with play-offs, if necessary, the first week in August.

The first week schedule:

Monday, June 1, Wareham Reds vs. Bourne Clippers, at Bourne, 6 P.M.; Mattapoisett Mohawks vs Bourne, at Bourne, 8 P.M.; Wareham Blues vs Mattapoisett Wanderers at ORRHS field, 6 P.M.; Wednesday, June 3rd, Wareham Blues vs Bourne, at Bourne 8 P.M.; Wareham Reds vs Marion, at ORRHS field, 6 P.M.; Thursday, June 4th, Bourne Clippers vs Matt. YWCA Activities

Fashions made from fabrics, hand woven in "self-help" programs in Latin America, will be modeled at the Fiesta Fashion and Strawberry Dessert, Tuesday, June 16th, sponsored by World Fellowship Committee for benefit of the World Fellowship Fund.

Many of the fabrics are hand embroidered and some garments made of hand-made lace. For the most part they will be one of a kind, individual, and unlike those found in most shops. Ponchos and blouses

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS

Select the merchandise you want from our fresh, new, exciting stock of apparel and sportswear.

Total it up. Then, before you pay, pick one of the balloons floating on the ceiling (there will be hundreds of them).

On the top of each balloon, you will find the % of discount that you will receive. Deduct this percentage from your total bill and that's all you pay.

Discounts will run from 10% to 100%. Perhaps you will be the lucky chooser of a 50%, 75% or 100% discount!
